FINDING OWEN: A BOY'S STORY

Owen Suskind is a young man with autism featured in the recent documentary "Life, Animated." In 1994, when Owen was almost three years old he started to withdraw and eventually stopped speaking. Not much was commonly known about autism, and Owen's parents, Ron and Cornelia, took him to a specialist who diagnosed him. Despite full time intensive speech and language therapy, Owen remained silent and the only activity that comforted him was watching Disney animated movies. Then a few years later there was an astonishing breakthrough: on his older brother's 9th birthday Owen told his parents, "Walter doesn't wanna grow up like Mowgli or Peter Pan." After barely speaking for years Owen put together a complex and insightful sentence, and it was at that moment Ron and Cornelia realized Owen understood the world through animated movies. Now understanding the key to communicating with Owen, his verbal skills began to improve and eventually led to him moving out, having a girlfriend, going on job interviews and more. ABC News correspondent Deborah Roberts' reports.
